

GBEMI ADEDURO

MSW CANDIDATE

Gbemi Adeduro is a Master of Social Work Student at The Ohio State University. She obtained her bachelor in Community Health at Towson University. Originally from Maryland with a Nigerian background she relocated to Columbus, Ohio. Prior to Conquering wall counseling agency, Gbemi worked as a Residential Care Coordinator at an organization that provides intervention and holistic care to female survivors of human trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation. Gbemi enjoys traveling, painting, writing, and fashion. She enjoys bringing joy to her life by having people smile and laugh. Gbemi passion for social work and therapy, was born seeing the need for people to know their purpose and identity in life. She desires to see people live a fulfilled life of peace, hope, and happiness.

A quote she likes to remember is to be the change you want to see in the world.

A goal of hers is to bring life to people who feel unseen and restore hope to the hopeless.