

PINETTA WIGGINS

MSW CANDIDATE

Pinetta Wiggins is a Master of Social Work student at Case Western Reserve University. She has a bachelors of science in Business Administration from Ohio Dominican University. Born and raised in Sidney, Ohio, Columbus has been her home for the past twenty-five years. After working at the Ohio Medicaid Consumer Hotline, she realized she enjoyed helping people in crisis and God led her to a new career path.

She is deeply rooted in her faith and is passionate about helping adults and children heal from past traumas. She enjoys traveling and spending time with family and friends.
